Category: Risk Champion of the Year

Columbus, OH – Andrea Quinichett, Assistant Vice President of Purchasing

Implementing a new internal alert procedure during zero-degree weather to prevent property damage from frozen pipes or water damage was a proactive and effective strategy. Introducing team collaborative sponsored lunches on Tuesdays and Thursdays weekly is a commendable initiative to foster a sense of community and support employee retention. The result was a successful winter season with no reported losses, demonstrating the importance of timely and preventive measures in facilities management. This initiative not only protected the properties but also showcased the ability to anticipate and mitigate risks associated with extreme weather conditions. It provides an opportunity for staff to connect, share experiences, and build stronger relationships within the workplace, contributing to a more cohesive and satisfied team. Such efforts can significantly enhance the work environment and demonstrate a commitment to the well-being and appreciation of employees.

Del City Housing Authority, OK - Residential Safety Program

Safety Program implemented by our resident managers. It is a safety protocol for when we have tornados, fires, and other emergencies. We have 4 floors to our apartment complex. Each floor has a resident manager assigned to them. Each Resident manager has to be equipped with a bright color vest to wear so that responders know who to talk to if they need to rescue someone. Manager Residents also have whistles, flashlights and cell phones to keep in contact with each other and first responders. It was the manager resident's idea that we put stickers on doors that needed help down the stairs and that had a pet that needed rescued. We did this. Then we created a list from the paperwork so that each resident manager would know who needs help by unit number so that we did not break any privacy laws. We have had several meetings with our fire department so they could train us on what they wanted done to make the rescue go smoothly. Each Resident manager knows who is on their floor by meeting the resident and they can check on them quickly.
